Red Purge in Poland Ousts Three

Top Government Officials Fired For 'Stalinism' Sins

LONDON (AP)—Poland's Communist regime announced today it had fired three top government officials in the second satellite purge of leaders who committed the sin of "Stalinism."

It listed them as: Stanislaw Radkiewicz, minister of state farms; Stefan Kalinowski, prosecutor general; Stanislaw Zarowski, the chief military prosecutor general.

Warsaw Radio announced the men were being relieved of their posts "in connection with the discovery of serious deficiencies which have occurred in recent years."

It said the government had discovered "distortions" in the military prosecutor's office and that there was an "inadmissible" lack of supervision of "the investigative functions of the organs of information of the Polish army."

The purge came only a week after Bulgarian Premier Vulko Chervenkov resigned after admitting he had committed errors of Stalinism—following too closely the teachings of the late dictator.

The broadcast said the Polish Council of State cabinet relieved the minister of state farms but did not specify the exact charges.

3 VANDERBILT YOUTHS HUNTED IN CAVE LABYRINTH; 3 MINERS ALIVE IN 'ONE-IN-A-MILLION' UTAH TRAP

SCOTTSBORO, Ala. (AP)—Explorers started an all-out search of vast "whistling cave" today for three persons, believed to be Vanderbilt University students, reported lost since Tuesday.

Seven searchers sent an urgent call for help after finding a note shortly after midnight which provided first evidence that the report was not a hoax.

The note, scrawled on toilet tissue and dated last Tuesday, contained one one side the word, "Lost," and on the other side, "George, one light left. R. S., April 14."

The hunt had been touched off by a George Pike who said his lost companions were Ray Smith, James Mann and John Wilson, all of Nashville, Tenn.

An "outside" man who spread the alarm Thursday had vanished afterward, and possibly now was a fourth person lost in the five-mile, dual-level labyrinths of the limestone cavern 15 miles from here.

Bill Varndoe, president of the Huntsville, Ala., Speleological Society, sent out a call for a roundup of other members, saying apparently the bona fide note was found deep in the cave.

Varndoe and six other society members had searched Thursday afternoon and night, and were about to give up when the note was found.

SUNNYSIDE, Utah (AP)—Three of four miners were found alive today deep inside a Utah coal mine where they had been trapped and virtually given up as dead for more than 36 hours.

Within two hours after first signals were received that the men had survived Wednesday afternoon's cave-in, one of the miners, 39-year-old Lavell M. Golding, was in the arms of rescue workers and on his way out of the inclined tunnel, apparently uninjured.

The Carbon County sheriff's office said the other two survivors were Lloyd A. Heath, 36, Sunnyside, father of three children and Joseph A. Archibetta, 43, Dragoon, father of one.

Still unaccounted for was Joe Otterstrom, 38, Sunnyside, section foreman who had seven children. A veteran miner said the "one in a million" formation of a pocket at the working face of the mine tunnel—a pocket protected by an arching slab of coal that dropped in front of it—was the miraculous haven that saved the three men.

STILL A CHANCE

Asked if there was a chance the fourth man was still alive, the official of the Kaiser Steel Company's Sunnyside No. 2 mine replied: "We don't know."

The cave-in occurred about 1:40 p.m., MST, Wednesday. Three shifts of 30 miners each had been working constantly since, hoping against hope they could find their fellow workers alive.

Group Votes Record Sum for 'Voice'

House Body Boosts Last Appropriation By $22,000,000

By UNITED PRESS

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Appropriations Committee voted today to put up a record $101 million to finance America's propaganda battle against Communism.

The funds were included in a $598 million appropriation to run the State and Justice Departments and the Federal judiciary for the year starting July 1.

They represent a $22 million increase over last year but are $25 million short of President Eisenhower's request.

The funds were earmarked for the U. S. Information Service which operates the Voice of America, overseas libraries, America's participation in trade fairs, student exchanges, and touring orchestras and sports teams.

The Voice of America for years has been under intermittent congressional fire as an ineffective if not unnecessary agency. Some observers therefore interpreted the record appropriation as an indication the storm against the "Voice" has at last spent itself.

The committee rejected USIA's request, however, for $3.8 million to remodel an aircraft carrier into a floating outdoor theater to show Cinemas in ports from North Africa to Japan.

Fast-Moving Desert Circus Fete Speeds Tempo for Last 3 Days

Twentieth annual Desert Circus, already moving at a fast pace, swings into high tempo the final three days.

Tonight is the Big Top Ball at Thunderbird Country Club, social highlight of the week long activities, and the night of the JayCee and JeeCee Variety Show at Legion Hall.

The traditional parade will start at 10:30 a.m. tomorrow, Saturday, from El Mirador Hotel, and continue down Palm Canyon Drive to Ramon Road. More than 100 entries will be featured.

The Sheriff's Dance, sponsored by Elks Lodge 1905 will be held at the American Legion hall Saturday night, immediately following the Kangaroo Court at El Mirador. Skinnay Ennis and his Orchestra will play for dancing. Sunday afternoon will be the second annual Square Dance Jamboree, at Deep Well and Sahara Park, with hundreds planning to attend from clubs throughout the Southland. Co-sponsors are the Palm Springs Swingers Club and the City Recreation Department.

Meanwhile, the Village has acquired a Western atmosphere, residents and guests adopting Western attire. Most persons are also wearing the Circus Immunity buttons, which will entitle them to enter the Kangaroo Court tomorrow evening.

DESSERT RATS TIED IN THE HEAD

Frenchy from Slap Jack Gulch went berserk during World War I—and he even tried to walk on the waters of Salton Sea, but his faith wasn't quite strong enough, so they dragged him out and sent him to the Insane Asylum. In a few years they let the harmless old fellow out, checking his medical report and gave him discharge papers.

Nowadays when anything comes up about Desert Rats being nuts he always says and says, "Well, ya know there's a heap of crazy folks in this Desert, but I'm O.K. I got the papers to show I'm sane. Don't know anyone else around these parts that's got real proof they're sane."

U.S. Cracks Down on Gamblers' 'Layoff' Network

By UNITED PRESS

Federal agents said today they will make more arrests in a nationwide crackdown on a vast gamblers' "layoff" network.

Raid on bookie joints and gamblers in five cities Thursday gave the agents valuable information on how local horse parlors are linked through thousands of long-distance telephone calls, officials said.

Federal tax agents paid surprise visits to gamblers in Pittsburgh, the Chicago suburb of Des Plaines, the Boston suburb of Revere, Fort Worth, Tex., and Newport, Ky.

They made at least 16 arrests, most of them on charges of failure to buy the required $50 federal gambling stamp or of failure to pay the 10 per cent tax on bets.

Pittsburgh was the T-men's prime target and the center of the "layoff" network, federal agents said. There, "Mamie's Grill and Ice Cream Store" handled 3836 telephone calls from points throughout the country and Canada during a three-month period. The bookie joints which were raided in other cities all laid off bets with Pittsburgh gamblers, agents said.

"Lay-off" bets are those which are transferred from one bookie to another when he has received more bets on a particular race than he wishes to handle alone.

Knight Leaving After 4-Day Golf Interlude Here

Governor Goodwin J. Knight, who with his wife, Virginia, is vacationing four days in Palm Springs, will return this evening by airplane to Fresno where he will take part tomorrow in a Fresno county Centennial celebration.

At 2 p.m., Saturday, he will return to Riverside county and Hemet, where he will take part in the Ramona Pageant Press Party. A full week's schedule of dedicating roads and attending other celebrations will follow.

The Governor was not in good golfing form on the Thunderbird Country Club links today, while playing with a foursome including Bill Reichel, Ed Houghton and George Stanley.

In an interview with The Desert Sun, he said that he was thoroughly enjoying his stay here because it was so "restful," and declined to comment on state and national politics or problems.

He added this is only the third time he has been able to play golf since he became Governor.

Cease-Fire Pact Fails to Prevent Mid-East Clash

JERUSALEM, Israeli Sector (AP)—The crisis in the Middle East between Israel and its Arab neighbors flared again today despite the peace-making efforts of U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld.

Both Israel and Jordan accused the other of border violations and an Israeli spokesman said "tension is mounting" along the border.

Both sides protested to the U.N. Mixed Armistice Commission about an alleged incident that occurred Wednesday. Today, Col. Nehemia Brosh, Israel's chief military spokesman, reported another incident. He said that early Thursday Jordanian forces again opened fire from Israeli territory at an Israeli military car moving along a highway north of Bet Govrin.

He said the passengers returned the fire, but there were no casualties.

An Egyptian military spokesman accused Israel of violating the cease fire agreement reached only yesterday by Hammarskjöld by sending planes over Egyptian territory. He said three Israeli warplanes flew over the Egyptian-held Gaza strip today.

An Israeli foreign office spokesman in Jerusalem denied an "utterly false" Egyptian allegation that Israel had violated the cease fire agreement.

Register Robbed

Paye Yates, operator of a restaurant at 363 North Palm Canyon Drive, told police yesterday that about $50 was stolen when she left a cash register unattended for an hour.

Kangaroo Court at El Mirador at 5:30 Tomorrow

Kangaroo Court will be rapped to order at 5:30 p.m. tomorrow on the terrace at El Mirador. Judge Leo Fields will again preside and, according to co-chairmen Ernie Dunlevie and Frank Bogert, there will be several entertaining surprises during the evening.

TV star Danny Thomas will be on hand to provide laughs and Queen Anita Ekberg and Grand Marshal Kirk Douglas for "glamor." Frank Bogert will emcee and music will be provided by orchestras from night spots; Guadalupe Boys from the Doll House, Duke Mitchell's group from the Ranch Club, and others.

Dale Stoner will serve typical circus snacks and there will be four or five bars on terrace and patio.

Festivities will continue until 9 o'clock when the crowd will move to the Sheriff's Ball at the Legion Hall.

Land Negotiation Awaits Report

Further action on securing rights-of-way from the Indian owners of land over which McCallum Way will pass in Section 14, will await the report of a zoning consultant to be hired by the Indians.

After the zoning report has been received by the Indian owners, negotiations in regard to overall planning for the area and the rights-of-way will be renewed with the city.

Police to Clear Parade Street

Rotary Hears of Savings and Loan History

The growth in savings and loan associations in the United States from the first group organized at Frankfort, Pa., in 1831 to the present was described to Rotarians last Wednesday by A. C. Newell, manager of the Los Angeles office of the Home Loan Bank Board of San Francisco.

Savings and loan associations in this country now have over 19 million members and total assets of over $40 billion, he said, and hold one-third of all the home mortgages.

Depositors have much better protection now than when the associations were first organized, Newell said. He gave as the reasons the modern plan of amortized loans, laws and regulations that make the associations highly supervised, high level of loss reserves, the strength of commercial banks used as depositories, and insurance provided by the Federal Home Loan Bank system.

The speaker was introduced by Bill Smith of the Coachella Valley Savings & Loan association who explained that these financial groups are celebrating their 125th anniversary this year.

Dr. William Elliott made an appeal for support of the Cancer Society drive here and pointed out that Palm Springs has always exceeded its quota. Fay Brainard was honored for having completed his 25th year in Rotary, 21 years of which he has had perfect attendance. Quite a number of heavy fines were assessed by Hal Waltz and collected by D. C. Stachler.

The meeting was presided over by Don Miller, and guests were introduced by Henry Baker.

Sol Lesser Announces Shopping Center Plans for Area West of Indio

The recent purchase of 20 acres adjoining the western city limits of Indio by Sol Lesser, motion picture producer, for the construction of a modern, up-to-date shopping center is stimulating a great deal of real estate activity in the area known as the Del Sol Club Area.

The property has about 1400 feet on Avenue 46 at the Junction of Highway 111 and Monroe street. This area has a high income population which together with the residents of Indio, numbering about 8,000 makes this fast growing area have a population of about 30,000 people. Two hundred palm trees now on the property will be used for landscaping, and to provide shade in the parking area which is designed to accommodate 1,000 automobiles.

It is designed to serve the area in which are located in addition to Indio, Coachella, La Quinta, Palm Village, Palm Desert and Thousand Palms.

The buildings will have an area of 150,000 square feet and will be completely refrigerated air-conditioned. They will be modified modern in design.

In addition to all the stores and specialty shops usually found in a shopping center, there will be a complete automobile service station so that the shopper may have his motor car needs attended to while shopping. One of the features will be a children's recreation center which will have in attendance qualified nurses and baby sitters for children of all ages.

Sol Lesser recently purchased this property from Mrs. Esther Arce and Alfred Arce, Robert Ransom, president of Ransom Realty Corporation of Palm Springs, represented both the buyer and seller, and will act as consultant.

The property and proposed improvements will represent an investment of over a million dollars. Stanley Bergerman, realtor of Beverly Hills, will act as leasing agent.

Three Houses Sold by One Ad

"Thanks to The Desert Sun we sold three houses for a total value of more than $37,000 with one display ad," jubilantly telephoned Jack Meiselman today.

He said that this publication can take credit for the sale of a home on Tacheva Drive; one on El Paseo and a third one at Granvia and Valmonte.

"It certainly pays to advertise in that newspaper called The Desert Sun," Meiselman beamed.

Chess players sat alongside of bridge and canasta players and later mixed freely on the dance floor. Music was furnished by Carl Coss, Mrs. A. Strong and Al Jones. Mrs. Lillian Shimmins assisted with square dance calling.

Mrs. Minnie Snyder, Mrs. Hildur Johansson and A. Stevenson supervised the preparation of a delicious buffet supper.

Mrs. Sonja Graf-Stevenson, the United States Women's Chess champion, A. P. Junol and I. E. Nordstrom gave chess exhibitions. ## J. W. Robinson's Announces Plans for Store in Downtown Pasadena

Construction of a new J. W. Robinson store in the heart of Pasadena was announced today by Donald Buckingham, president. The new 160,000 square foot store will be located in the block bounded by Colorado Street, Oak Knoll, Hudson, and Union.

It is estimated that Robinson's Pasadena will cost in the neighborhood of $5,500,000 and will be ready for opening early in 1958.

"This is the fourth unit in an expansion program designed to place large Robinson stores in a number of suitable Southern California communities," said Buckingham. "The Pasadena store will be urban in character, designed to serve the people of Pasadena according to their own particular tastes." The company presently operates stores in Los Angeles, Beverly Hills and Palm Springs.

Extensive parking facilities immediately adjacent to the store will be provided, with easy accessibility to present and planned freeways serving the many foothill communities to the north, as well as the vast trading areas lying to the east, west, and south.

According to the management, Robinson's Pasadena will be a complete store, with emphasis on apparel, accessories, and children's wear. The company's characteristic high standards of quality and fashion-rightness will be maintained to make the new store typical of the other Robinson operations. Dramatic dining facilities and other customer services are contemplated.

'No Absolute Justice'

Dr. Chaim Weizmann, first president of Israel, once told a United Nations Commission that the Israel-Arab problem cannot be solved according to principles of absolute justice. That opinion still seems applicable this week.

Internationally, the big news of last week was the agreement of the Arabs and Israeli to establish and observe a cease-fire. Observers hailed it as a development leading to solid hope of avoiding an all-out Mid-East conflagration. Its importance is to be in no wise discounted.

Nevertheless, the cease-fire should be recognized for what it is — a repetition of an armistice which was already supposed to be in effect — one negotiated by the same UN in 1949. Viewed realistically, there seems little more likelihood of its enduring permanently than did the first.

Probably the best the new truce can hope to accomplish is to recess the tragic waste of lives, the aggravating of old enmities, until UN negotiators can have another try, at the heartbreaking task of finding a solution in a situation that sometimes seems to admit of no one.

As Dr. Weizmann said, there is plenty of injustice in the Middle Eastern situation as it exists today.

Israel is suffering under a strangling Arab economic blockade, and from Arab raiding.

Nine hundred thousand Arab refugees from the area that is now Israel are being supported by international charity. Looking a little farther afield, such people as the Kurds, Druses and Assyrians are still denied independence.

But the only hope of eventually working out reasonably just solutions of the Middle East racial, religious and political problems would seem to lie in the maintenance of the status quo, bad as it may be, and piece meal attacks on the individual problems.

That is the reason why American and British navies are now making a show of force in the Mediterranean. They are there to deter anybody going off the deep end.

Israel could probably defend herself temporarily — might even drive into Arab territory — but with her limited manpower how could she possibly hope to occupy and hold captured ground?

Even with unlimited American arms, does it seem reasonable to suppose that 1,700,000 Israelis could hope over the long-pull to match forces with 40,000,000 Arabs, armed by the Russians?

If Israel should defeat Egypt, it almost certainly would mean the end of Premier Gamal Abdel Nasser's revolutionary government. Whatever may be thought of Nasser, he is attempting social and economic reforms that are necessary to start Egypt along the road toward Western democracy.

If the United States and Britain intervened directly in an Arab-Israeli war, the Soviets have warned they might also move in to protect their interests — the Reds have long coveted Middle Eastern oil and warm water ports in the Eastern Mediterranean and Arabian Sea.

If the Russians did intervene directly in the Middle East, the Western powers would either have to fight the Reds — exploding World War III — or see the Soviets capture Middle Eastern oil, ports and strategic bases that would make the Reds dominant in the world.

The Anglo-American policy of trying to preserve the status quo in the Middle East, and to stave off possible Arab-Israeli war by a show of naval and air power, can, of course, be attacked both on the grounds of principle and practicality.

But, considering all problems that confront Washington and London, what is the alternative policy?

The West must do something fast to put out the fires that threaten general Middle Eastern conflagration. Under the 1950 Anglo-American-French declaration they have a legal basis for taking action "both within and outside the UN" to prevent violation of Arab-Israeli frontiers or armistice lines.

Prior to World War I, Britain and Turkey controlled the Middle East. There was no Israel, although there was a Jewish colony in Palestine.

To defeat the Turks in World War I, the British enlisted Arab help, through Lawrence of Arabia, promising Arabs independence.

At the same time for reasons that are still debatable, the British promised to establish a Jewish homeland in Palestine.

After the war, Britain set up a Palestine mandate, and attempted to work out a compromise settlement with the Arabs and Jews.

The mandate arrangement broke down, because of Jewish insistence on organizing an independent Jewish state, and Arab contentions they were driven out of their rightful territory.

Whatever the rights and wrongs of that controversy, the British became fed up with fighting both Jews and Arabs and in 1948 pulled out of Palestine.

The UN partitioned Palestine between Jews and Arabs, internationalizing Jerusalem. But the arrangement broke down because no UN power, including the United States, was willing to send troops to make the UN decisions stick.

In the meantime, open Arab-Israeli war broke out. The Jews won the war. The UN was able to negotiate an armistice in 1949. The armistice is still in effect, because no Arab-Israeli peace has ever been signed.

The Russians, meanwhile, with their historic tendency to flow into power vacuums, are infiltrating the Middle East.

But the situation is not hopeless. There are these items on the credit side of the ledger.

The Arab nations are no more anxious to lose their independence to Russia than they are to the Western powers.

The Moslem religion is basically anti-Communist, and the Moslems resent Soviet treatment of their co-religionists in Central Asia.

Most of the Arab leaders sympathize with the West and, if granted equality and support, will probably keep their countries in the Western camp.

The Arab countries, particularly Egypt, are working toward the same kind of Western welfare state that exists in Israel.

There are reasonable grounds for believing Nasser is far more interested in solving Egypt's internal problems than he is in fighting Israel.

Thus, in the breathing-spell the cease fire affords, it is at least possible to hope for something permanent.—M.L.H.

Good Answer (Redlands Daily Facts)

How should the police department handle the issuance of tickets to out-of-towners parking?

The Merchant's Division went to the City Hall with one theory. The way to win customers, they reasoned, is for the police to issue courtesy tickets to non-

Redlanders for the first, hour violation.

But the police department replied: "The concept of special privilege for out-of-towners is in error. What will keep the out-of-town customer away is not a parking ticket, but no place to park."

Sweating It Out in Fort Sumter

THIS SIDE of The Sun By Phat

Every year at this time comes the old puzzle. The same old sitting blank and empty-brained before the typewriter trying to think of a word to rhyme with Circus.

They say there's no word to rhyme with "orange." The word Circus is just as difficult. One year I used raucous—the next "jerk us"—neither went over very well.

Besides, my mind is not on the task before me.

I JUST CAME AWAY from the weekly meeting of the Lions Club and the program today was under the auspices of Sanford Cooper, more commonly known as "Sandy."

And he spoiled my whole day for me.

Here it is only April and vacation still some time in the future and he shows a film called "This Is My Railroad."

"Just crammed full of trains, scenery and other items of like nature which brings out the travel urge."

BUT FROM COMMENTS of the many Lion club members and their guests, everybody likes a train—or trains. They may fly, drive their own autos or take the bus—but the pictures of the long trains snaking around the curves, going across the high bridges and bucking through the snow, apparently aroused nostalgic memories in every one of 'em.

Sandy, who is the downtown passenger representative for the FSP (Friendly Southern Pacific) outlined what was in store for the club before the picture was put on the screen and said:

"We are not trying to sell you anything. We just want to show you what it takes to run a railroad, the work that is going on behind the scenes and the thousands of people who make railroads tick."

Maybe so—but it made a lot of others, besides myself, yearn for the singing rails.

And, coming to think about it, when Cooper told of the length and breadth of the FSP and all the places it touched, it reminded me: I've been over practically every mile of it. Excluding the freight yards, of course.

TOMORROW'S PARADE will be a musical affair. So far, I understand, there'll be 25 bands, plus a drum and bugle corps.

Jimmy Morton, parade chairman, boasts that it will be the most tuneful parade and the most beautiful.

"A treat for the eyes and the ears," he said.

Speaking of the parade: Conky Conkwright, who has been in the Circus parade or the Western Week parade every year, some place, says he'll be in it tomorrow.

"They told me I couldn't this year," he said. "Told me they were going to 'clean up the parade.' Oh, yeah? Just watch for me."

Well, at that, someone has to clean up after the parade.

NOW FOR THE LIGHTER side. I was told the other day of a grandmother who overheard her daughter complain about the irregularity of the mails. "H'm," she snorted, "that's nothing new. The males were irregular when I was young. Never could trust 'em."

THESE FOREIGN CARS should be easy to sell. Get a person in one and it's hard for them to get out.

Let's redistrict the city of Palm Springs.

This must be accomplished if the majority of the people living in this city are to have an equal voice in council representation.

I am well aware of the fact that I wrote about this in my last column; but reiteration is the best medicine that can be used in forcing a curative down the throats of persons who go about each day without a single thought about government of the people and by the people.

I remember when a group in this community feared with every fibre of their body the thought of redistricting Palm Springs. It was feared that Districts 1 and 2 would overwhelm the community by an equal voice on the city council.

Today, that very fear is consuming those who originally dreaded the idea. There is nothing that could be done today for the good of this city that constituents in those two districts could not, if banded together solidly, overthrow by election if a majority of them listened to the voice of their council representatives.

If only half of them went along with the exhortations of their councilmen — these people who represent almost half of the voting strength in our community could do it.

I know, too, that Ted McKinney and Jerry Nathanson, councilmen respectively of Districts 1 and 2, are for redistricting. I believe that the people who live in these districts would vote favorably for redistricting.

THE OTHER SIDE of the picture is that those councilmen who represent no more than 126 to a top of approximately 400 constituents in their respective districts should for the sake of good democratic form of government, agree to redistricting. All of the councilmen and many of our people who think are constantly raising their voices about the lack of redistricting in Riverside county. We have been shouting figuratively at our supervisors that this side of Riverside county is not properly represented at the county seat. O.K., then we have the same situation right here at home.

Let's put our own house in order first.

Not since my telephone story of several months ago has the redistricting of Palm Springs as published in this column last Tuesday raised so much comment. Have been stopped on the street and received innumerable telephone calls.

Let's try a poll of opinion in this column. Drop a postal card in the mail to Unedited. Only one word is needed. They could be "For Redistricting" or "I'm against it." Just two cents and a moment of your time.

The scene at Weifels Mortuary was a sad one last night. One of the two Marines standing in honor at each end of the casket during Rosary for Staff Sergeant Toth, with the tragic faces of friends and family swimming before his eyes, suddenly collapsed to the floor.

IT IS RUMORED, but without foundation in fact, that our newly-re-elected Mayor Florian Boyd may resign from the council, it is said, in about five months. Just a rumor and the excuse if that does occur will be "the press of private business and health."

Jerry Nathanson soloing about town without his Joan Davis. Tony Cosentino sporting a white lace shirt and proudly showing the shirt to curious.

There's a lot of jovial men over at the Desert Inn in convention. They are all members of Swift and Company, Western Division. One walked over to me at the Chi Chi and whispered: "If you are going to have dinner ask for a Swift & Company, pre-cut New York steak. They're terrific. Actually these men, most of them sales managers in various areas, are being fed on pre-cuts, all frozen and shipped ahead of the convention. George Robbins, manager of the eating department at the Inn, said he never saw so much meat at one time. "They will be served pre-cut, frozen loin of lamb, roast, steaks, and nearly every cut that comes from a steer." In other words, these men are going to sample first what they plan to sell later.

MIKE JERYLL, realtor, got a big kick out of listening to the oratorical contest, but a bigger one watching the amazement on the face of Bill Goodwin, radio and TV master of ceremonies, and his enrapturement with the words that poured from the mouths of those babes. Bill is one of the highest paid slinger of words in public today.

Between the beginning and the end of this column I was forced to leave my typewriter for a trip down Palm Canyon Drive. The redistricting of Palm Springs seems to be on the lips of most everybody that stopped me. I hope it's also part of your thinking too.

EARL WILSON:

Best in Burglars

CANNES—We were sitting on the famous terrace at the Carlton—waiting for Kim Novak—who's here for the Cannes Film Festival—when somebody mentioned burglars.

"America has many 'bests,' but it doesn't have the best burglars," I said. "Even Texas wouldn't boast about its thieves."

"There are some extremely clever hotel-burglars in Milano," spoke up Edith Wilcox, the wife of a London hemp tycoon.

"And I should know," she continued. "My husband and I went for a drink with some friends for a half hour."

"When we came back, we found our eight trunks had been rifled. They'd stolen all the finery I'd bought in New York!"

"Immediately we called the police."

"The police said, 'Were your things smart and attractive?'"

"I said, 'Of course. I bought them for a trip on the Queen Mary.'"

"So the policeman said, 'You will never get them back.'"

"I was dumfounded. The policeman said, 'Our thieves here are artists. They are clever. They are fond of smart, attractive things, and you will never get them back.'"

"And I never did."

"Maybe American burglars just don't have good taste," I said.

"Yet," the lady continued, "you do meet other kinds of people. One day in London I needed 100 pounds to pay a bill and my husband, who was at the office, said he'd send it right over to me. He phoned later and asked whether it had arrived. It hadn't."

And so, she said, she asked him: "How did you send it?"

"Oh, by a cabbie."

"Not your own driver?"

"No, just by a cabbie."

"Some cabbie you know?"

"No, just one I waved to."

"Did you take his number?"

"Oh, no, that would have upset him terribly!"

"Did he know it was money?"

"Of course. Oh, he'll be there, darling, don't worry."

Those of us listening to the story shook our heads, wondering how the English can be so stupid about money matters. The fool!

"Presently," the lady said, "there was a ring at the door of my flat and the little old cabbie handed me a packet containing 100 pounds."

"I gave him a pound tip and my husband had already given him a pound, too. That's $5.60, so he hadn't made out so badly."

Al Anthony to Play on TV

Al Anthony, La Paz pianist who won the popularity poll in the Community Chest Radiothon, will appear on Larry Finley's TV show "Strictly Informal" next week.

There was much excitement in the Spur and Sable Sunday night when Al rose from 14th place to number one in one frantic hour, emerging with 11,650 votes representing 10 cents apiece for the Community Chest.

It all started when Al Rose announced that he would match dollar for dollar any contributions made in an hour's time. Larry Finley said he would put the winner of the local talent on his show for one engagement and the contest grew feverish.

At that time the popularity poll was headed by Sinatra, Hope, Crosby, Doris Day and other top stars, with local artists like Anthony, Tex Kidwell, Virginia Dew and Walt Flynn in the race. George Shaw, La Paz publicist

Desert Circus Deputies Raid Village Night Spots

Desert Circus deputies turned out in western garb, armed with immunity badges, subpoenas, and guns to enforce their sales, for the annual On the Town night.

They met at the Ranch Club at 6 p.m. Wednesday, where they were guests of Under Sheriff Noel Clarke for cocktails and a buffet, which featured ham and turkey, baked beans and an array of other dishes. Desert Circus chairmen Jimmy Cooper and Ray Corliss, Desert Circus president Jimmy Morton, High Sheriff Trav Rogers, and Under Sheriff Ernie Young, Judge Leo Fields, were there to make the tour of the night spots with the deputies. Also, Mickey Finn, Frank Bogert, George and Ethel Strebe, Bozo the Clown, Mac McDonald.

There was music of the Quadajara Boys (they went on the tour), food and drink, and last minute instructions from Sheriff Trav, before the gaily-attired deputies piled into the big bus.

Don the Beachcomber, Saddle and Sirlon, Howard Manor, the Dunes, the Chi Chi, the Doll House were all raided and rocked to the explosion of the Sheriffs' guns. At El Mirador the convection crowd added immunity badges to their souvenirs of Palm Springs. Then it was on to the Racquet Club, and Jimmy Van Huesen's Piano Bar, with a wind up of a highly successful tour, at the Palm House

NEW YORK (AP) — The sports world, dewy-eyed and devastatingly emotional, wrung out its red bandanas today and settled back to normal in the wake of the Grace Kelly-Prince Rainier wedding.

Of course, it will be a while before they all fall into stride. As the boxing guys allowed, as result of the various investigations, "This thing shook us up pretty good."

So here are some of the sport-ing quotes, and slightly para-phrased quotes, on the trans-lantic Philadelphia story:

Padres Take Over Lead in Coast League

Mesa Pitches His Second Win; Suds Bounced By Seals

By DON THACKREY

United Press Sports Writer

The San Diego Padres took the Pacific Coast League lead away from Seattle last night and the Rainiers headed for Bordertown to see what they can do about getting it back.

The Pads parlayed a 4-1 victory over Vancouver and a 5-2 San Francisco win over Seattle into a half game lead as the teams switched partners in midweek.

In other games yesterday Los Angeles clobbered Portland 11-5 and Sacramento swept its three-game series with Hollywood by winning 7-4.

Pete Mesa pitched the Padres into the top spot by stopping the Mounties with five hits as he won his second game of the young season. Mesa tired, however, in the ninth and Allen Gettel put out the fire. George Bamberger was the victim of the nine-hit Padre attack.

Russ Kemmerer of San Francisco matched Mesa's record by getting his second of the season without defeat at the expense of Seattle.

Hollywood's Curt Raydon pitched splendidly for six innings against Sacramento and then came apart at the seams. Raydon had a no-hitter and five strikeouts for the first six frames, but came to a bad end in the seventh.

Los Angeles pitcher Harry Perkowski also proved handy with the bat as he slammed a bases-empty home run against Portland and held on for his second win against a defeat.

Murray Under Fire in Quiz of Boxing in State

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — Harry Fine, manager of lightweight contender Joey Lopes, was scheduled to take the stand today as the state probe of boxing

Murray heatedly denied at Thursday's session that he owned any part of the boxer or that he took a hand in forcing the sale of Lopes' contract by Phil Garcia, his original owner, to Fine.

Murray also denied having any business with Frankie Carbo, an underworld figure, or sending any "kickbacks" to Los Angeles Promoter Babe McCoy.

However, Murray did agree that he made out checks totalling more than $3,200 to one Willie Ginsberg of Los Angeles, who Cox characterized as a "self-described hanger on in the fight business."

Murray said that these payments from March of 1948 to September of 1950, constituted Ginsberg's "booking fees" along with the fact that "certain fellows would tell me to be nice to Willie so I could get their fighters."

One check made out to Ginsberg, in September of 1950 for $750, Cox declared, showed a second endorsement by a Mrs. Martin Velsch, whom he identified as Baby McCoy's daughter. Cox showed a photostat of the check to Murray who said he didn't know who she was.

Indians Take RCL Opener in Bat Spree

Brubaker Fashions 3-Hitter As Mates Bang Out 13 Hits

By JOHN SIMON
Palm Springs Indians blasted 13 hits yesterday as they successfully opened their league season, defeating Elsinore Tigers, 12-3.

Lloyd Brubaker pitched a brilliant three-hit ball game, striking out 10 men.

It was the first victory of the season for the Indians and Brubaker.

The local baseballers scored four runs in the first inning and were never in danger after that.

Brubaker helped his own cause by binging out a triple and a single in four times up.

Victor Reyes and Skip Martin also looked good at the plate. This was the first game that the Indians showed any signs of hitting power.

As the Tigers have no J.V. team, the Palm Springs paposes traveled around the lake to take on the Elsinore Military Academy J.V. After playing two innings the score stood at 21-1 in favor of the Indians and it was decided to call it quits.

Next week the Indians will meet the Coachella Arabs on the Arab's diamond. In two previous meetings, the Coachella nine defeated the Indians 25-11 and 10-9. The Arabs are favored to take their second straight league title this season.

The line score:
Palm Springs . . . 406 200 0-12 13 3
Elsinore . . . 000 003 0-3 3 1
Brubaker and Lewis; Mendoza, Hunter (2) and Johnson.

PITCHERS TAKE OVER IN AMERICAN; BATTERS PREDOMINATE IN NATIONAL

By CARL LUNDQUIST
United Press Sports Writer
Into that very special niche reserved for classic pitching duels went the memorable battle of Jack Harshman and Herb Score today, and despite the tingling tenseness of the double two-hitter, the White Sox lefty figured all the way to beat Cleveland's sophomore southpaw, 1 to 0.

IN THURSDAY'S BATTLE Score had visions of a no-hitter, even after Chicago scored the only run of the game in the seventh on a walk to Minnie Minoso, a two-base wild pitch, and Larry Doby's sacrifice fly. It wasn't until the eighth, when Walt Dropo opened with a single, that the spell was broken. Luis Aparicio followed with another single and that was it.

There was fine pitching elsewhere in the American League.

At Detroit Bobby Shantz, another lefty, gave Kansas City a heartening performance when he held the Tigers to five hits and a 4-1 triumph that indicated his arm is sound again. Young Tom Brewer two-hit the Orioles at Boston in a 4-2 triumph and Chuck Stobbs, one of two pitchers left on the Washington roster who beat the Yankees last season, turned in a seven-hit 7-3 win over them.

But it was mainly a hitter's day in the National, especially at Cincinnati where there were eight homers in a 10-inning 10-9 triumph for the Redlegs over St. Louis. The Dodgers pounded out a 5-4 come-from-behind triumph over the Phillies in 10 innings at Jersey City and the Pirates edged the Giants, 3-2. Bob Buhl pitched Milwaukee to a 3-1 triumph over Chicago.

Roy Campanella's 1,000th big league hit, a double, drove in one run and Rube Walker brought in the other with a sacrifice fly in Brooklyn's triumph. Gil Hodges grand slam double brought in the three earlier runs.

RONNIE KLINE pitched seven hit ball as the Bucs came from behind with two runs in the seventh to beat Allan Worthington in a tight duel. Frank Thomas singled home what proved to be the winning run in the eighth, offsetting a Giant homer by Daryl Spencer in the ninth.

Singles by rookie Wes Covington and Danny O'Connell drove in the seventh inning runs that gave Buhl his triumph. Covington had batted for Buhl.

Puerto Rican New Find in Mid-Distance

Latest Rankings By NCAB Reveal New Olympic Hope

LOS ANGELES — A new U.S. Olympic prospect for the 400-meter run has turned up as a freshman at the University of Puerto Rico, the latest rankings released by the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau revealed today.

The bureau said Ivan Rodriguez turned in a 46.6 clocking in his second attempt at the 400-meter distance. His feat vaults him into the lead in the 400-meter and 440-yard rankings ahead of such top athletes as Oklahoma's A&M's J. W. Mashburn, Southern California's Mike Larrabee and Jim Lea of the Air Force.

The first outdoor rankings of the season, however, spotlighted the field event men. The rankings showed that already 10 men have thrown the discus over 170 feet and 14 have gone beyond the 54-foot mark in the shotput. Parry O'Brien of the Air Force leads in both events with a 184-foot 10-inch mark for the discus and a 60-foot 8-inch effort with the shot.

Alabama Revolt Comes to an End

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. — Ninety-two rebellious University of Alabama athletes ended their walk-out from their rent-free dormitory today after a compromise on their demands for more liberal training regulations.

VANCOUVER, B. C. — John Landy, the world's mile record holder, has been invited to compete in Vancouver in May by the British Columbia Olympic and British Empire Games Association. R. F. Osborne, secretary of the association said there was a possibility that Landy might be able to compete in the annual Sports Day May 25.

Jersey City O.K. but Bums Will Take Brooklyn as the Old Home Grounds

JERSEY CITY, N.J. — The Dodgers think Jersey City is okay, but they'll take Brooklyn, thank you.

There wasn't any hot water in the clubhouse, the fences didn't beckon as invitingly as they do at Ebbets Field, and the Dodgers made five errors, yet most of the Brooklyn players had a good word for their new part-time "home" here after defeating the Phillies, 5-1, in 10 innings Thursday.

The game, which drew a disappointing crowd of 12,214, was the first major league contest played at Jersey City since 1889, and it was also the first of seven regularly scheduled contests the Dodgers will play at Roosevelt Stadium this season.

"You can bet all the gold in Ft. Knox there won't be very many homers hit in this park," declared Duke Snider as he towelled himself in the clubhouse after the game.

Jackie Robinson, who made his debut in organized baseball at Roosevelt Stadium 10 years ago, said he liked the park then and still does now.

Barbara Romack Heavily Favored

SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO — Young Barbara Romack, Sacramento, was a heavy favorite to defeat Mrs. George Downing, Atherton, today in the 36-hole finals of the California Women's Amateur Golf Championships.

In the semifinals Thursday, Miss Romack crushed little Angie Vole, Santa Cruz, 7-5, while Mrs. Downing defeated Mrs. Kermit Pearson, San Mateo, 4-2.

Board of State Bar Here for 3-Day Session

Board of Governors, State Bar of California, together with the executive council, Conference of Junior Bar Members, are currently meeting at the Oasis Hotel in their one monthly meeting a year held outside the Los Angeles and San Francisco areas.

Four items of interest to the general public are on the agenda of the three-day conference which started Thursday.

They include: Consideration of a tentative draft of a juror's handbook which would be distributed to all counties without cost; proposed revision of pre-trial rules to relieve the congestion in courts; proposed amendment to the Government Code to prevent administrative agencies from appointing their own personnel as hearing officers, and a suggested amendment to the State Vehicle Code which would provide that

Friends Predict Grace's Return to Films—Unless

VILLIEFRANCHE, France—Princess Grace and Prince Rainier sailed today toward Spain on their Mediterranean honeymoon. Friends predicted she would return to pictures within a year if a baby does not intervene.

The Royal couple apparently spent their wedding night aboard Rainier's Yacht Deo Juvante II anchored in a peaceful cove just 100 yards offshore from the Prince's villa on Cap Ferrat, ten miles from Monaco.

Lights burned late in the villa but the yacht sailed on the flood tide this morning without any boats putting out from shore except for those containing curious newsmen. All the newsmen got was a shrug from the crew of the yacht.

The yacht passed off Cannes at 11 a.m., bearing seaward on a westward course that would take it toward Spain. Original reports said the honeymooning couple would first visit Italy.

persons involved in an accident be given a hearing before losing driver licenses for insurance reasons.

Members of the Board of Governors present are: Grant B. Cooper, vice president, Los Angeles; Ellis R. Randall, vice president, Vallejo; Joseph A. Ball, Long Beach; Harry M. Dougherty, Riverside; James L. Focht Jr., San Diego; Duard F. Geis, Wilcox; John J. Goldberg, San Francisco; Albert J. Ruffo, vice president, San Jose; Frank S. Balthis, treasurer, Los Angeles; Jack A. Hayes, secretary, San Francisco; Edwin A. Heafey, Oakland; Wayne R. Millington, Redwood City; and Edwin W. Taylor, Los Angeles.

Representing the Conference of Junior Bar Members are: Roger P. Garety, president, San Rafael; Thomas J. Hudson, second vice president, Monterey; C. Robert Simpson Jr., third vice president, Los Angeles; Jerome L. Doff, Beverly Hills; Colt I. Hughes, Los Angeles; Roccoe D. Jones Jr., Oakland; Robert L. Ordlin, Los Angeles; Allan L. Sapiro, San Francisco; James A. Smith, San Bernardino; and William J. Thorburn, Oakland.

This is the second time the group has met here, the first being in 1952. They are guests of the Riverside County Bar Association, J. R. Walker, Jr., of Riverside, president, and the Desert Bar Association, David M. McGahey of Palm Springs, president. A dinner is being given by the county group tonight, and tomorrow a chuckwagon breakfast will be held by the Desert Bar Association.

2 Students Here Among Bank Contest Victors

Two Palm Springs High School seniors were among the 12 named zone 4 winners last night in the Bank of America's annual Achievement Awards program.

Kenneth Reich took first place in the general field of Science and Mathematics, and Richard Blackstone won second place in the field of Liberal Arts, and was awarded a $50 prize.

Reich will receive a cash award of from $100 to $1000 when he competes in the Southern California finals May 17 at the Statler Hotel in Los Angeles.

Winners were selected by a judging panel including Mrs. Sherman Whitnah, president of the Riverside Women's Club; Rev. Harold Lov, pastor of the Chico First Methodist Church; Mrs. W. E. Silverwood, Redlands, civic leader; Florian G. Boyd, Mayor of Palm Springs; George V. Berkey, County Supervisor; and Dr. George Armacost, president of Redlands University and chairman of the panel.

The group met the 30 competing students at the Desert Inn to hear them in group discussion of topics related to their studies.

The bank sponsors the $44,900 statewide program to "bring public attention, reward and encouragement to young people of unusual promises."

Frank Portnoy Pleads Guilty to Bookmaking

Frank Portnoy, yesterday pleaded guilty to a bookmaking charge in Superior Court, Indio, and his brother, Joe, was released after charges against him were dismissed.

Two other suspects were scheduled to face the same court later this afternoon to hear Judge Hilton McCabe's answer to their motions for dismissal made last week.

Frank Portnoy will face sentencing May 10 at 1:30 p.m. in Indio. He pleaded guilty to five of the six counts of bookmaking alleged by deputy district attorney John Morgan. Morgan said the sixth count should not have been filed.

His brother, Joe, was released after McCabe granted Morgan's motion for dismissal. Morgan said they didn't have enough evidence to hold him.

Zella Hensley and George Zou-

BANK OF AMERICA sponsored statewide Achievement Awards program was completed in zone 4 last night and two Palm Springs High School students took high honors. # LINCOLN

The longest, lowest, most powerful Lincoln of all time

The car that speaks as well of you as you will speak of it

Of the many pleasures of owning Lincoln, none is more satisfying than what this totally new car says about you.

For here is the fine car that says you have a feeling for trend-setting style—that you admire the sweep of clean-flowing lines... the scant five feet of lowness... the sleek new length that is so unmistakably Lincoln. And, as so many others now turn to this Lincoln—making it the most sought-after of all time—this superb new car says that your judgment is of the kind others follow.

This Lincoln says that your heart lifts to spirited performance—the kind that comes from teaming 285 high-torque horsepower with Lincoln's incomparably smooth

Turbo-Drive. And yet it also says that you expect such great power to be beautifully balanced—with comfort to soothe you, stability to ease your mind, and a feel of the wheel to put you completely in control.

There's so much more that Lincoln says—and so much you will say. But why not let this new fine car speak for itself?

Stop in tomorrow—or today if you can—and slip into the driver's seat. Make your own appraisal of this Lincoln that's so long—and so longed-for!

LINCOLN

Unmistakably... the finest in the fine car field
